

Les Cheneaux Islands

In Michigan's Eastern Upper Peninsula

Easy to reach.
Hard to leave.

Where the simple life of yesteryear
can yet be found.

Les Cheneaux (Lay-Shen-O)

“THE CHANNELS”

Les Cheneaux is rich in historical background. More than three centuries ago the explorers and fur traders used these protected waters in their travels, as we do now for recreation and culture.

~

The 36 islands, anchored by the villages of Hessel and Cedarville, are your ALL SEASONS VACATION HEADQUARTERS for romantic getaways, great escapes, family adventures, nature retreats on or near thousands of acres of public lands...

~

Beaches for sunning and swimming

~

Marinas and great waters for boating, sailing, canoeing, kayaking, fishing

~

Woods and public lands for biking, hiking, camping, exploring, geo-caching, wildlife and bird watching

~

Magnificent fall-color excursions

~

A mecca for hunters

~

A winter wonderland for snowshoers, dog-sledders, cross-country skiers, ice fishermen

~

Galleries of artists, photographers, artisans, and a fiber arts studio

~

Fun retail and antique shops

~

Museums and a prominent wooden boat building school

~

NOTABLE FEATURES

Les Cheneaux Historical and Maritime Museums

Great Lakes Boat Building School

Historic Indian Cemeteries

Fall Color Tour Route

Lake Huron Circle Tour

100 miles of Snowmobile Trails
connecting with the UP Trail System

8 Golf Courses within 40 miles

Kewadin Casino just minutes away

Gateway to the North Channel and Georgian Bay

Paved Airport

~

NEARBY ATTRACTIONS

Mackinac Island – 35 minutes and a short ferry ride

Mackinac Bridge and St. Ignace – 35 minutes

Soo Locks – 45 minutes

Easy to reach.
Hard to leave.

East of I-75
Exit 359 to M-134

LES CHENEAUX
ISLANDS
WELCOME CENTER

Hwy. M - 134
PO Box 422
CEDARVILLE
MICHIGAN
4 9 7 1 9

CALL:

906 484 3935

888 364 7526

www.lescheneaux.org