FORT MACKINAC

Open May 3 to October 7, 2012

Inside the stately stone walls it's a different time. The cannon blasts, the rifles fire, the soldiers march and history comes alive. The oldest building in Michigan and 13 other historical structures boast exhibits explaining everything from military training and battles to medical treatments to family life within the fort.

Special programs for both kids and adults, and events commemorating the bicentennial of the War of 1812 make Fort Mackinac on Mackinac Island a must-see attraction.

Located within the fort, the Tea Room provides a dining experience with spectacular views over Marquette Park as freighters and ferries pass by all season long.

HISTORIC DOWNTOWN MACKINAC

Open June 9 to August 18, 2012

Explore hearth cooking, blacksmithing and groundbreaking medical discovery at Historic Downtown Mackinac, included with admission to Fort Mackinac or the Richard and Jane Manoogian Mackinac Art Museum

Mackinaw City

HISTORIC MILL CREEK DISCOVERY PARK

Open May 2 to October 7, 2012

Discover the Past. Discover Nature. Discover the Adventure!

At Historic Mill Creek Discovery Park visitors can witness the power of the creek harnessed to cut timber into lumber at one of the oldest industrial sites on the Upper Great Lakes. Additionally, visitors can soar like an eagle on the original Straits of Mackinac zip line and trek through the treetops on the forest canopy bridge as part of the Adventure Tour.

THE RICHARD AND JANE MANOOGIAN MACKINAC ART MUSEUM

Open May 11 to October 7, 2012

Nowhere else does such a rare and exceptional collection of Mackinac-related art and photography come together to tell Mackinac's story.

Children interested in creating their own art will enjoy the Kids' Art Studio on the first floor between June 9 and August 18. Skilled artists on staff can help teach technique or step back and let the creativity flow through paint, pencils, and crayons.

2012 Special Exhibit: Mackinac's Grand Hotel

In commemoration of the hotel's 125th anniversary, this exhibit explores the rich history of the world's largest summer resort hotel.

COLONIAL MICHILIMACKINAC

Open May 2 to October 7, 2012

Treasures from the past come to life at this 18th-century fort and fur trading village. Reconstructed based on historic maps and more than 50 years of archaeological excavations that continue today, Colonial Michilimackinac offers a one-of-a-kind experience from cannon and musket firings to hearth cooking and crafts.

OLD MACKINAC POINT LIGHTHOUSE

Open May 5 to October 7, 2012

A point in the storm and a guiding beacon since 1889, Old Mackinac Point Lighthouse helped passing ships navigate through the treacherous waters of the Straits of Mackinac. There's just as much to see from the top of the tower as inside the original buildings. Authentically restored quarters and exhibits, including the original lens and an audiovisual program, Shipwrecks of the Straits, make this "Castle of the Straits" a true gem of the Great Lakes.
