

Explore the exciting first chapter of Upper Great Lakes history!

The city operated park and museum portray a vivid picture of Straits of Mackinac life over 300 years ago, when Ojibwa, Huron, Odawa and French lifestyles met at this protected bay.

- Woodland Indian Culture & Traditions
- Michigan Registered Historic Site
- Significant Archaeological Site
- National Historic Landmark
  - French Jesuit Mission
  - Ongoing Video Presentation
- Museum Store featuring Certified Native art

Marquette Mission Park and Museum of Ojibwa Culture

500-566 North State Street
St. Ignace, Michigan 49781

906-643-9161

Museum Exhibits show Ojibwa Indian culture and traditions, the French contact period, and the site's rich archaeology.

Outdoor exhibits and a long house help to explain Huron Indian life here.

Marquette Mission Park quietly memorializes the famous Jesuit priest Jacques Marquette, who established a mission here in 1671.

Open Daily:

- Memorial Weekend to late June, Monday through Saturday 9:30 AM to 5:30 PM, Sunday 10 AM to 5 PM
- Late June to Labor Day, daily 9:30 AM to 6 PM
- Labor Day to mid October, Monday through Sunday 10 AM to 5 PM

Admission:

Adult/Teen	Elementary	Preschool	Family
$2.00	$1.00	free	$5.00

Marquette Mission Park and Museum of Ojibwa Culture

Free Parking - Group Tours Welcome

Find us at the north end of the boardwalk, next to the Chamber of Commerce in downtown St. Ignace.

*Native American Art of the Finest Quality
in the Ojibwa Indian Museum Store*

