LIGHTHOUSE
FOUNDED 1889

Relive the past, make a memory at Old Mackinac Point Lighthouse

A point in the storm and a guiding beacon since 1889, Old Mackinac Point Lighthouse helped passing ships navigate through the treacherous waters of the Straits of Mackinac. There's just as much to see from the top of the tower as inside the original buildings. Authentically restored quarters and exhibits, including the original lens and an audiovisual program, Shipwrecks of the Straits, make this "Castle of the Straits" a true gem of the Great Lakes.

Daily tours to the top of the tower offer a one-of-a-kind perspective as a costumed guide points out islands and features of the Straits of Mackinac.
