OUR MUSEUM IN ONTONAGON

is located downtown and features exhibits such as the Ontonagon Boulder, a 3,708-pound copper mass that sparked a copper rush in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan in the mid-1800's.

Museum open year-round during business hours, Mon. - Sat. Eastern Time.

People say that we have one of the best small-town museums ever seen.

Lighthouse Tours are available, with knowledgeable guides to tell the story.
